Update on the selection of art works and literature: - difficulties encountered during the selection of narrative work and art work? - methods/approaches used by all partners in surveying the both the narrative-field and art-field? - what other filtering mechanisms (if there is any) could be put in place during the selection? - should we rely on one person's interpretation of the art/ narrative work? Should we seek pluralistic view when interpreting? - how can we strengthen our justification of selected works in the fields of art and literature and their linkages to the entrepreneurial theme/sub themes of each partner?	Seydi +all
